Why Sponsor RISC-V Summit Europe?

The RISC-V Summit Europe brings together the global RISC-V ecosystem: silicon vendors, system companies, tool providers, researchers, and developers. Sponsorship provides direct access to decision-makers, engineers, and community leaders shaping the future of open standard hardware.

Our sponsorship program is designed to:

- Maximize meaningful visibility (not just logos)
- Provide real engagement with developers and technical leaders
- Offer clear ROI through speaking, demos, and presence
- Targeting 700+ attendees
- Bologna is serious engineering city, where research meets real-world hardware
- Europe is a key market for RISC-V adoption and ecosystem momentum
- Europe is home to some of the most innovative companies, universities, government & research entities, evangelists and engineers
